University of Oregon Coaching Staff

Head Coach Mark Helititch - 1st Season at Oregon, 10-2 (7-2) - 32nd Head Coach in School History - Oregon Offensive Coordinator (2009-2012) - Colorado Offensive Coordinator (2006-2008) - Southern Oregon University, 1996

Oregon's first-year head coach Mark Helfrich knew the comparisons would be inevitable – how do you replace arguably the most successful football coach in school history? His answer was simple – by being Mark Helfrich.

That formula proved to be successful. In guiding the Ducks to a regular-season 10-2 mark, the number of wins not only tied his predecessor Chip Kelly's school record for most victories by a first-year Oregon head coach, Helfrich stands one win shy of equaling the conference record for most victories by a first-year head coach.

Helfrich helped orchestrate the continuation of the program's offensive firepower this season as the Ducks led the league in total offense (2nd in the country) for the fourth year in a row, in scoring offense (3rd in the nation) for the seventh straight season, and in rushing (9th nationally) for the eighth time in many years.

The 40-year-old Oregon native was appointed the school's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 20, 2013, following a quartet of seasons as the Ducks' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the program's most prolific era in school history. Oregon tallied a 46-7 ledger and four BCS bowl appearances from 2009-12.

He had accumulated seven seasons as an offensive coordinator at two FBS schools and 15 years coaching quarterbacks.

The first native Oregonian to head the university's football program in 71 years was named the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach following three seasons in the same capacity at Colorado (2006-08), five years as quarterbacks coach at Arizona State (2001-05) - which included his final three campaigns in Tempe, Ariz., as passing game coordinator - and three seasons as quarterbacks coach at Boise State (1998-2000).

Over the course of his last 14 seasons, Helfrich has played a role with offenses that have ranked among the nation's topeight teams in scoring offense seven times, the top six in rushing on four occasions, the elite five in total offense five times as well as the top five in passing twice.

Ranking as the youngest offensive coordinator in the nation at a BCS school at Colorado in 2006, Helfrich's offenses were marked by improvement each of his first two seasons in Boulder. His 2007 team was just the third in school history to gain 1,000 yards on offense more than the previous season.

During his five-year Arizona State stint, the program blossomed into one of the top passing teams in the country. In his final season there, the Sun Devils finished third in the NCAA and led the Pac-10 in passing yards per game (373.9 avg.). ASU posted a school-record 4,481 yards passing that season to elevate its five-year total to 18,686 yards (306.3 avg.).

Born in Medford, the 1992 Marshfield (Coos Bay) High School graduate turned down an opportunity to walk on at Oregon in favor of attending Southern Oregon University, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in biology in 1996. The NAIA Scholar-Athlete (1993) led the nation in total offense while earning NAIA honorable mention All-America accolades and first-team Columbia Football Association honors as a senior. That season, he accumulated singleseason school records in passing yards (2,712), total offense (3,196) and touchdown passes (23), topping the 400-yard mark in single-game total offense three times.

He was inducted into his alma mater's Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2012.

He began his coaching career as running backs coach at his alma mater in 1996 before playing and coaching (offensive coordinator) in Europe with the Vienna (Austria) Vikings in the winter of 1997.

Mariota completed 12 of 21 passes for 234 yards while adding 113 yards on the ground before sitting out the final quarter after the Ducks built a 45-3 lead.

De'Anthony Thomas ran for 128 yards and two more touchdowns in Mark Helfrich's Oregon's head coaching debut.

Oregon was seldom challenged, capping its first six drives with five touchdowns and a 29-yard Alejandro Maldonado field goal while accumulating a school-record 772 yards of total offense.

On its first drive, Oregon scored on a 4-yard run by Thomas. On its next, Mariota found Bralon Addison with a 27-yard scoring pass to make it 14-0.

Thomas added a 22-yard scoring run with 6:28 left in the first quarter and Alejandro Maldonado's field goal made it 24-0.

Mariota ran for a pair of touchdowns, the first from 12 yards and the second from 46, to put the Ducks up 38-3 at the half.

The sophomore quarterback, who was on several Heisman watch lists going into the season, was selected to the Pac-12 first team last season and earned conference Freshman of the Year honors.

Byron Marshall ran for a 49-yard touchdown for the only third-quarter score, and Oregon blocked Andrew Dolan's 42-yard field-goal attempt early in the fourth.

Colt Lyerla scored on a 3-yard run and quarterback Jeff Lockie - who took over for Mariota in the fourth quarter - added an 8-yard TD run before quarterback Jake Rodrigues, who found Chance Allen in the end zone with a 23-yard pass for the final margin.

Marshall finished with 124 yards rushing, giving Oregon its first game to feature three players with more than 100 yards rushing in school history.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, V/A — Marcus Mariota and No. 2-ranked Oregon wasted little time showing Virginia all that speed the Ducks bring is more than just talk.

Oregon Game Recaps

The Oregon quarterback ran 71 yards for a touchdown on the Ducks' sixth play from scrimmage, transforming a third-and-5 situation into a demoralizing introduction into what Oregon football is all about.

Mariota finished with 122 yards and the one score on four carries in addition to throwing for 199 yards and two touchdowns. De'Anthony Thomas added three touchdown runs, and the Ducks piled up 557 yards of offense in their first trip to Charlottesville en route to a 59-10 victory that looked frighteningly easy.

Thomas ran for 124 yards on just 11 carries to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors, and the Ducks cruised to their second straight win against a Virginia defense that had hoped to keep the Cavaliers in the game. Oregon's up-tempo offense did all its damage while possessing the ball for less than 22 minutes of the game.

Virginia (1-1) came into the game riding a high following a comeback victory the previous week against BYU, however was unable to overcome the Ducks' 28-10 halftime advantage. Oregon's 31-0 second-half outburst sealed the Caveliers' fate as freshman Thomas Tyner came off the bench to account for Oregon's final two TDs.

Virginia trailed 21-0 after 10:32 and never was able to sustain anything on offense. Quarterback David Watford finished the day 29 for 41 for 161 yards but threw three interceptions and fumbled once, with all four turnovers leading to Oregon touchdowns.

Following Mariota's long scoring run, both teams exchanged punts. When the Cavaliers' Alec Vozenilek punted again from his 14, Josh Huff deflected the ball out of bounds. Three plays later, Thomas went through the line from a yard out and extended the advantage to 14-0 less than 8 minutes into the game.

EUCENE-ORECON — Quarterback Marcus Mariota threw for a career-high 456 yards and four touchdowns and second-ranked Oregon handed Tennessee its first loss of the season. 59-14.

The margin of the setback equaled the Volunteers' worst since 1910 and marked their first non-conference defeat since the Ducks duplicated that outcome in Knoxville in 2010, 48-13.

Freshman tight end Johnny Mundt had five catches for 121 yards and two TDs for the Ducks (3-0), as he was the recipient of the national John Mackey Tight End of the Week award. Josh Huff added six catches for 125 yards and one score.

Mariota, who completed 23 of 33 passes, was the first Oregon quarterback to throw for more than 400 yards in a game since Kellen Clemens in 2005. The sophomore quarterback's yardage ties for the third-most in one game in school history.

Tennessee could not keep up with the speedy Ducks, who accumulated 687 yards in total offense and accounted for 59 unanswered points.

Tennessee drove 80 yards in six plays on its second drive of the day and scored on Justin Worley's 4-yard touchdown pass to Jason Croom to provide the visitors with a brief 7-0 advantage.

An apparent De'Anthony Thomas touchdown catch was nullified by an offensive pass interference call before the Ducks settled for a 38-yard Matt Wogan field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Just over 2 minutes later, Oregon pulled in front for good with Mariota's first of two scoring strikes to Mundt (16 yards), who became the school's first tight end with at least 100 receiving yards since Ed Dickson in 2009.

During the game, the Honolulu sophomore became just the fourth quarterback in Oregon history to rush for more 1,000 yards in his career.

Mariota then threw 54 and 45-yard touchdown passes to Huff and Daryle Hawkins, respectively, prior to Thomas' 28yard scoring run that gave the Ducks a 38-7 halftime lead.

EUCENE, ORECON — Sophomore Bralon Addison returned two punts for touchdowns and Byron Marshall ran for 130 yards and two more scores as the No. 2 Ducks downed California, 55-16, in a game played in a torrential downpour for most of the night.

Addison accounted for a 75-yard return with 6:08 remaining in the second quarter before doing so a second time from 67 yards out early in the third quarter to spur Oregon's 41-0 run in the Pac-12 opener for both schools.

He was selected as the Pac-12 Conference's Special Teams Player of the Week.

Marcus Mariota threw for two touchdowns and ran for another as the Ducks (4-0, 1-0) overcame the elements as well as the extended loss of all-purpose threat De'Anthony Thomas on the opening kickoff.

The driving wind and rain all but shut down the ``Bear Raid'' offense that new head coach Sonny Dykes has installed at Cal (1-3, 0-1). Cal freshman quarterback Jared Goff, who came into the game as the nation's passing leader (435.3-yard avg.), completed just 3 of 6 passes for 11 yards in the first quarter before he was replaced with backup Zach Kline.

Oregon opened the game with Marshall's 14-yard scoring run. Mariota threw two touchdown passes in the opening quarter – a 19-yarder to Josh Huff and a 14-yard toss to Daryle Hawkins – before Marshall ran for a 25-yard score in the final minutes of the first period, to extend the advantage to Addison's second score early in the third quarter pushed the margin to 48-3 and equaled a school record for most punt returns for a touchdown in a single game (Cliff Harris vs. New Mexico, 2010).

Thomas Tyner extended Oregon's advantage to 55-3 on a 21-yard touchdown run before the Golden Bears finished the game with a pair of cosmetic scores.

The Ducks benefitted from five Cal turnovers, converting two of them for 14 points.

COULDER, CO — Marcus Mariota threw five touchdown passes and ran for two more scores as No. 2 Oregon brushed off some early trickery to rout Colorado, 57-16.

The Ducks' sophomore connected for two touchdowns each with Josh Huff and Bralon Addison en route to setting the school's single-game record for most TDs accounted for while throwing for 355 yards in just over half the game.

Oregon (5-0, 2-0 Pac-12) scored 55 points or more in each of its first five games and refused to slow down once it got rolling, accumulating 21 unanswered points to close the first quarter before responding to a pair of Colorado field goals with a 28-point run spanning the second and third periods.

The inspired Buffaloes (2-2, 0-2) jumped out to margins of 3-0 and 10-8 leads in just over the first 5 minutes before reality set in as five of the Ducks' eight touchdown drives spanned less than 2 minutes. During a 4-minute stretch late in the opening quarter, Oregon extended a slim 15-10 edge to a 29-10 cushion.

Mariota, who was named the Pac-12 Conference's Offensive Player of the Week, delivered scoring tosses of 75, 44 and 26 yards as Oregon amassed 415 total offensive yards in the first half alone.

After Will Oliver's pair of chip shots pulled the Buffaloes within a 29-16 deficit, Oregon went for it on fourth down from the Buffs 27 and 1 and converted each time.

Mariota walked it in to make it 36-16, capping a drive that took 3:38, a lifetime by the Ducks' quick-strike standards, and then he hit Huff from 4 yards out to put the Ducks ahead 43-16 at halftime.

Mariota finished his afternoon completing16 of 27 passes. Addison accumulated 158 receiving yards on five catches and Huff had 103 yards on five receptions.

Cornerback Ifo Ekpre-Olomu led the Ducks' defenders with eight tackles as they shut out the home team on third down in 15 attempted conversions.

Game 6 — Oregon at Washington Husky Stadium • Oct. 12, 2013

SEATTLE, WA—Marcus Mariota was finally forced to take a fourth-quarter snap for Oregon. He was just as good as he was in the first three.

The Honolulu sophomore threw for 366 yards and three touchdowns, added another 88 yards and one TD rushing, and the second-ranked Ducks won their 10th straight over No. 16 Washington, 45-24.

Mariota's passing was nearly spotless, completing 24 of 31 passes and running another 13 times to earn the Pac-12's Offensive Player-of-the-Week accolades for the second time in as many weeks.

Twice in the second half the Huskies pulled within a touchdown. Both times, Mariota responded by leading the Ducks (6-0, 3-0 Pac-12) to touchdowns of their own.

Byron Marshall added 106 yards rushing and two touchdowns while Bralon Addison snagged a career-high eight catches for 157 yards and two scores for the second week in a row.

Yet no score may have been as important as Josh Huff's. After Washington closed the deficit to 21-14 on the opening drive of the third quarter on a 60-yard Bishop Sankey run, Huff hauled in a 65-yard touchdown strike from Mariota 68 seconds later to regain the Ducks' momentum.

The Huskies (4-2, 1-2) defense gave up 633 total yards to Oregon. They came into the game third in the country in yards allowed per play (3.9 avg.) but the Ducks averaged 7.9 per touch.

Oregon took advantage of a Torrodney Prevot fumble recovery deep in its own territory in the second quarter. Mariota went to work immediately, hitting Addison for 38 yards and seven plays later the two connected again on a 4-yard TD to break a 7-7 deadlock and give the Ducks a lead they would never relinquish.

Yet it wasn't until the final quarter when Oregon could breathe easier with Mariota finding the end zone on a 5-yard run with 13:55 remaining in the game and adding a 3-yard TD pass to Addison later in the fourth quarter for the final margin.

#2 ORECON WASHL STATE

EUCENE, ORECON —Sophomore running back Byron Marshall ran for 192 yards and three touchdowns, Marcus Mariota threw for 327 yards and two scores and ran for another as No. 2 Oregon (7-0, 4-0 Pac-12) overcame the prolific passing of Connor Halliday for a 62-38 victory over Washington State (4-4, 2-3).

Bß

Mariota kicked things off with a 57-yard scoring dash on the Ducks' first series of the game as they capped four of their first five drives of the night with touchdowns to help withstand Halliday's conference record for completions (58) and FBS pinnacle for attempts (83).

Despite throwing for 557 yards Halliday also threw four interceptions, including one that was returned 51 yards for a touchdown by Terrance Mitchell early in the fourth quarter.

But mistakes proved costly for Oregon late in the first half. Following Halliday's second touchdown pass of the game, a Mariota fumble was returned 29 yards for a Cougar touchdown to cut their deficit to 27-21 with 5:35 before halftime. But a 66-yard Thomas Tyner TD run 55 seconds later restored the two-touchdown advantage.

The Ducks cleaned up the mistakes in the second half and pulled away, racking up 719 yards in total offense.

Oregon opened the third quarter with touchdown drives on its first two possessions of the third quarter. Mariota found Keanon Lowe with a 10-yard scoring pass and Marshall scored on a 30-yard run to extend a 34-24 halftime lead to 48-24 heading into the final 15 minutes of play.

A 17-yard Mariota-to-Josh Huff pitch and catch increased the Ducks' margin to 55-24 before Mitchell's pick six early in the fourth quarter capped the home team's offensive assault.

Senior cornerback Avery Patterson led all Oregon defenders with eight tackles in addition to returning an interception 18 yards.

The Ducks extended their winning streak over the Cougars to seven straight games.

EUCLINE, ORECON — Sophomore Byron Marshall ran for 133 yards and three touchdowns and second-ranked Oregon wore down No. 12 UCLA's stout defense for its eighth-straight win and a 42-14 verdict.

AQ

Marcus Mariota threw for 230 yards and a score and De'Anthony Thomas returned from a three game absence to run in another for the Ducks (8-0, 5-0 Pac-12).

The Bruins (5-2, 2-2) grabbed the early advantage and went into halftime with the score knotted at 14 but were shutout by the Ducks in the second half.

UCLA had not won at Autzen Stadium since 2004, and hasn't defeated the Ducks since a 16-0 blanking in 2007.

Oregon got off to a poor start, stymied by its own mistakes and UCLA's defense. On the Ducks' second play from scrimmage, Keanon Lowe fumbled a completion from Mariota that led to Brett Hundley's 4-yard touchdown run to give the Bruins the early 7-0 lead.

But Rodney Hardrick ran 66 yards on a fake punt and Thomas finished it off with a 1-yard dive for an Oregon touchdown to even the score.

The Ducks went ahead, 14-7, early in the second quarter with a 40-yard scoring run from Marshall, but a blocked punt late in the half led to Hundley's 11-yard scoring pass to Thomas Duarte to even the game at the intermission.

Oregon took control of the game late in the third quarter, capping a 49-yard drive in 1:32 with Marshall's 11-yard run, before the Ducks added 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter.

Avery Patterson intercepted Hundley early in the fourth quarter and the Ducks went on to score on Mariota's 8-yard pass to Bralon Addison. Marshall added a 3-yard touchdown dash with 8:47 left and freshman Thomas Tyner ran for a 2-yard TD with 2:25 to go for the final margin.

It was Marshall's fifth straight game with at least 100 yards rushing this season.

#BOREGON #5 STANFORD

STANFORD, CA — Oregon's fourth-quarter rally proved to be too little too late as Stanford crushed the Ducks' national championship hopes for the second year in a row with a heartbreaking 26-20 setback.

The Cardinal's Tyler Gaffney ran for 157 yards and sixthranked Stanford hammered No. 2 Oregon for three quarters before holding off a furious rally by the Ducks to beat them for a second straight season, 26-20.

Kevin Hogan ran for a touchdown and played a mistakefree game for Stanford (8-1, 6-1 Pac-12). The Cardinal put on a clinic in how to keep the ball away from an offense that came into the game averaging 55.6 points.

Oregon quarterback Marcus Mariota was under pressure much of the night, but he threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes, sandwiched around a blocked field goal return for a score by Rodney Hardrick, to pull the Ducks (8-1, 5-1) to within 26-20 with 2:12 left.

But Oregon couldn't recover a second onside kick and Stanford ran out the clock.

Stanford led 17-0 at halftime and added three more field goals by Josh Williamson in the second half.

The Ducks' missed opportunities to grab an early lead and force the Cardinal to abandon its ball-control strategy proved fatal. Mariota was unable two connect with a wide open Josh Huff that probably would have resulted in a touchdown on the opening series of the game. Following a defensive stand that led to a Stanford punt, Oregon proceeded to put together a 65-yard drive and move the football inside Stanford's 10-yard line. But the Cardinal's defense denied the Ducks twice from the 4 yards shy of the end zone and the momentum shifted.

Trailing 14-0 early in the second quarter, Oregon threatened to get back into the game before a 9-yard completion to De'Anthony Thomas was fumbled 2 yards shy of the goal line.

De'Anthony Thomas caught a touchdown pass and scored on an 86-yard kickoff return for the Ducks (9-1, 6-1 Pac-12) to keep their hopes alive to host the Pac-12 Conference Championship Game. Byron Marshall ran for two additional scores but the Ducks were slowed on the ground by Utah's defense, rushing for 145 yards after averaging nearly 302 yards a game this season.

Utah (4-6, 1-6) was handicapped with the absence of starting quarterback Travis Wilson, who didn't make the trip to Eugene because of a concussion. Backup Adam Schulz threw for 157 yards and a touchdown and ran for another.

Mariota connected with Thomas for an 8-yard touchdown pass less than 9 minutes into the game and the Ducks added a 31-yard field goal by true freshman Matt Wogan to make it 10-0 in the first guarter.

The Utes narrowed the gap on Schulz's 34-yard pass to Jake Murphy with 2:52 left in the half to cut the deficit to 10-7 and give Utah the impression it would go into the halftime locker room trailing by three points.

But the Ducks responded quickly by scoring on Mariota's 5-yard pass to Josh Huff - concluding a drive that took three plays and just 45 seconds - to increase the cushion to17-7 at the half.

After a 4-yard scoring run from Schulz, Oregon again quickly came back with Thomas' touchdown on the kickoff return to make it 23-14.

The Ducks tacked on three more touchdowns – a 14yard scoring pass to Johnny Mundt and a pair of Marshall TD runs (17 and 16 yards) to extend their lead to 44-14 early in the fourth quarter.

Carey raced past Oregon for 206 yards and four touchdowns while becoming Arizona's all-time rushing leader, and the Wildcats took advantage of numerous Oregon miscues to shock the fifth-ranked Ducks, 42-16.

Coming off a disappointing home loss to Washington State, Arizona (7-4, 4-4) didn't back off the throttle of its uptempo offense against the fast-paced Ducks.

With the nation's second-leading rusher bursting through the line to punish defenders and quarterback B.J. Denker dinking and dashing with a variety of fakes, the Wildcats jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead and kept going for their first win over a top-five team since knocking off No. 1 Washington 1992.

Oregon (9-2, 6-2 Pac-12) gave the Wildcats plenty of help with three turnovers and turning it over twice more on downs to dash its national title hopes.

Oregon sputtered most of the day, showing only flashes of the offensive brilliance that had them No. 2 in total offense and third in scoring entering the game.

Marcus Mariota threw for 308 yards and two touchdowns but also had two interceptions to snap his string of 353 pass attempts without a pick.

Following Carey's 6-yard touchdown run, the Ducks' ensuing drive ended with another drop, this one by De'Anthony Thomas on what would have been a big thirddown gain.

The Wildcats kept marching on Oregon's defense, moving 83 yards in 16 plays for a 5-yard touchdown pass from Denker to Terrence Miller to make it 21-3.

Arizona got one more chance after stopping Oregon on downs, ripping off 59 yards in 42 seconds for Carey's second TD, a 1-yard run that made it 28-9 at halftime.

Oregon could manage only one second-half score of its own, with a 2-yard Josh Huff touchdown catch rounding out its offensive production.

ORECON STATE B5 #19 ORECON B6

EUCENE, ORECON — Quarterback Marcus Mariota completed a 12-yard touchdown pass to Josh Huff with 29 seconds to play and No. 12 Oregon overcame a tenacious effort by Oregon State to prevail in the 117th edition of the Civil War rivalry, 36-35.

Mariota threw for 285 yards and three touchdowns - all to Huff, who enjoyed career highs of nine catches for 186 yards - and the Ducks (10-2, 7-2 Pac-12) sealed their sixth straight 10-win season.

With the Ducks holding a 24-23 lead, the Beavers scored on Sean Mannion's 4-yard pass to pull in front 29-24 early in the fourth quarter. But Oregon answered with Mariota's fourth-and-11 pass to Huff for a 12-yard touchdown and the Ducks took a 30-29 lead with 7:56 left in the game.

Victor Bolden ran for a 25-yard touchdown to make it 35-30 for the Beavers with 1:38 remaining, but Oregon State's defense couldn't stop the Ducks on their final drive.

Oregon's two-time first-team all-conference quarterback was at his best in engineering his team's decisive scoring drive that started at its own 17-yard line. Mariota completed four passes to four different receivers in addition to Thomas Tyner's 7-yard run, before capturing the moment with the scoring toss to Huff in the end zone.

The senior wide receiver concluded the regular season by being named the Pac-12's Offensive Player of the Week.

Tyner rushed for a season-high 141 yards and one touchdown for Oregon, which finished undefeated at home for the first time since 2010.

The Beavers were thwarted on the opening drive of the game when Mannion threw into the end zone on fourth-and-1 to Brandin Cooks and was intercepted by cornerback Ifo Ekpre-Olomu, who also led all tacklers with 12 unassisted stops.

Huff's first of three second-half touchdown catches paved the way for the two teams combining for 27 fourthquarter points.
